

Sec. IV History of Quebec and Canada
(585-404 / 085-404)

Intensive Summer School 2018

Course Objective:

To provide students with the opportunity to obtain their credits in Sec. IV History, the EMSB is offering an intensive summer school course to prepare students to write the Supplemental Examination.

This summer school course is scheduled over 10 days. Although some evaluation may take place during class time, students' final mark will be based on the Supplemental Examination.

Course Outline:

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| Days 1 and 2: | 1840-1896
The formation of the Canadian federal system |
| Days 3 and 4: | 1896-1945
Nationalisms and the autonomy of Canada |
| Days 5 and 6: | 1945-1980
The modernization of Québec and the Quiet Revolution |
| Days 7 and 8: | From 1980 to the present
Societal choices in contemporary Québec |
| Days 9 and 10: | Review and preparation for the examination |

For more information:

Please refer to the following documents:

- Program, including the Precision of Learning
- Examination Information Document for June 2018

These resources are available in the Social Sciences Google folder.

